Video Project 2015 15 mins SrH-A $195
"Pink boys" have their unique challenges: they do not neatly fit into a single gender box, and instead create a space between genders, which this film explores. They like to dress in girl’s clothing and play with girl toys, but still identify as boys. These children often face widespread ignorance and shaming, sometimes from their own families. They often live with daily threats of bullying and violence and are at high risk for depression and suicide as they reach their teens.

Living off the Grid

All the Time in the World
Drift Prod. Inc. 2014 86 mins Gr4-A $295
In search of a new perspective, a family of five makes the decision to leave the comforts of home to live remotely in the Yukon wilderness during the long northern winter amidst the surprises that the rawness of nature provide. The parents leave their jobs and take their three children, ages 10, 8 and 4, to spend nine months living in a small cabin with no road access, no electricity, no running water, and no internet, and not a single watch or clock.

Media Literacy

Project Z
Bullfrog Films 2015 74 mins SrH-A $395
An investigation into how war games, worst-case scenarios, complex systems, and networked media produce the very crises they seek to model, predict and report.

Military

The Kill Team
Oscilloscope Laboratories 2013 79 mins SrH-A $450
The Kill Team goes behind closed doors to tell the riveting story of Specialist Adam Winfield, a 21-year-old infantryman in Afghanistan who attempted with the help of his father to alert the military to heinous war crimes his platoon was committing.

Multicultural Studies

Muneeza in the Middle
GAPC Ent. 2014 52 mins SrH-A $250
Filmed over 5 years, Muneeza in the Middle is the story of a 2nd generation Canadian Muslim trying to reconcile her religious values with her cultural and western values. Her religion urges modesty in all facets of life, but she's a confident, beautiful, outspoken and successful lawyer who also turns heads with her piercings, fitted clothing, and cosmetic enhancements.

Nutrition

Milk
INDIECAN Ent. Inc. 2015 90 mins SrH-A $295
Through an intimate and artistic lens, Milk brings a universal perspective on the politics, commercialization and controversies surrounding birth and infant feeding over the canvas of stunningly beautiful visuals and poignant voices from around the globe.

Oil & Energy

The Burden
Video Project 2015 40 mins JrH-A $325
The Burden is the first film to examine how America’s dependence on fossil fuels poses serious immediate and long-term national security threats and how the military is taking a leading role in the battle for clean, renewable energy.

Planet Oil (3)
BBC 2015 3x50 mins JrH-A $599
Travelling to many oil and gas producing territories around the world, Planet Oil traces how humans have developed fuels and how geology, technology, politics and commercial pressures have affected and driven the world’s insatiable consumption. Timely and ground breaking, it also asks what will be the cost of our continued addiction to these fuels, and can the human race ever end its dependence on oil? mysterious substance is known as dark matter. Scientists hope that by discovering the identity of dark matter, they will discover an essential piece in the cosmic jigsaw, as well as answering some nagging problems with the standard model of particle physics.

Simple Nature

Video Project 2014 11 mins
SrH-A $99

Which Universe are We In?

BBC 2015 50 mins
SrH-A $249

Once considered the domain of extreme scientists, new evidence from all areas of physics now suggests that the multiverse is a real possibility.

The End of the Solar System

BBC 2016 50 mins
SrH-A $249

The fate of the solar system is written in the stars. Astronomers are searching the skies for spectacular cosmic events that mirror our own far future. As a result they can predict how the Sun and its planets will end in remarkable detail. It’s an apocalyptic vision where galaxies collide, planets melt and life is wiped out.

The Mystery of Dark Energy

BBC 2016 50 mins
SrH-A $249

The program celebrates the anniversary of General Relativity – and looks at the latest experiments to try and understand and even ‘see’ Dark Energy. Today’s astrophysicists and cosmologists are all on a huge quest to gather more data. This film examines how their work might affect Einstein’s 100-year-old theory.

Plants & Trees

How to Grow a Planet (3)

BBC 2012 3x60 mins
JrH-A $599

All animals rely on plants for their survival. This is not an accident – they are the most powerful evolutionary force on Earth. Plants enabled amphibians to leave the water, they had a hand in the rise and fall of the dinosaurs, and they ensured the ultimate triumph of insects, mammals, birds and even us humans – all for their own benefit. Because plants have only ever had one goal: the domination of the planet.

Trees in Trouble

Bullfrog Films 2015 27 mins
JrH-A $395

The film tells the compelling story of how one community in SW Ohio confronted their tree crisis and fought the invasive pest by taking action and joining together. Through partnerships with scientists, city officials and everyday citizens, this community was able to fight the pest and protect their urban forests for future generations. The film also explores the rich history of urban forestry in the United States and the exciting new research linking human health and trees.

Poverty & Homelessness

How I Got Over

Video Project 2015 87 mins
SrH-A $375

How I Got Over is an intimate, innovative profile of 15 formerly homeless and incarcerated African-American women that dramatically reveals the social causes of their plight and how their lives were transformed.

Secret War

Shannon Lough 2015 15 mins
SrH-A $150

Secret War follows the emotional journey of two veterans with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder.

Lowdown Tracks

Bishari Films 2015
SrH-A

Filmed over 18 months, Lowdown Tracks captures the music and stories of five musicians who are homeless or on society's margin.

Psychology - Mental Health

By Reason of Insanity (2)

BBC 2015 2x60 mins
SrH-A $449

Award-winning journalist Louis Theroux explores how society treats those who have committed crimes - at times horrifically violent - while in the grip of severe mental illness.

Refuge - Caring for Survivors of Torture

Bullfrog Films 2013 57 mins
SrH-A $249

It’s estimated that more than a million refugees, asylum-seekers and other immigrants to the United States have been victims of politically motivated torture. This documentary highlights five treatment and support programs.

Dan and Margot

Silence & Space Prod. 2015 75 mins
SrH-A $295

DAN AND MARGOT is the intimate look into the life of a young modern woman struggling to take back the three years of her life that she lost to schizophrenia. With transparency and even humour, we will confront the notion of schizophrenia through a female character-driven portrayal that asks questions about the deep-seated stigmatization of mental illness within our culture and the way in which we all choose to cope with our past, present and future.

Psychology - The Brain

The Battle in Your Mind

BBC 2014 50 mins
SrH-A $249

We like to think that as a species we are smart, wise, rational creatures. Every day we make thousands of decisions, both big and small. Behind all them is a powerful battle in your mind, pitting intuition against logic. It turns out that the intuitive part of our minds is a lot more powerful than we realize.

The Mystery of Murder

BBC 2015 50 mins
SrH-A $249

Scientists have used extraordinary techniques and experiments to see what goes on inside a killer’s brain. He shows how they have created a surprisingly comprehensive picture of the different factors that can drive someone to kill. And he asks the ultimate question – will we one day be able to intervene to prevent someone becoming a killer?
Resources, rather than waste.
The Immortalists follow two biomedical scientists seeking to radically extend human longevity through regenerative medicine.

Saving the Planet

Plastic Paradise
Bullfrog Films  2014  57 mins
JrH-A  $395
Midway Atoll has become ground zero for The Great Pacific Garbage Patch, siphoning plastics from three distant continents.

Racing to Zero
Bullfrog Films  2014  56 mins
JrH-A  $325
Only one third of the waste in the United States is recycled or composted. Why? Industry, through its practice of planned obsolescence, plays a major role; our lives are almost totally dependent on unrecyclable petroleum products. In order to reach zero waste, we need to change our relationship to garbage and view the things we discard as resources, rather than waste.

Love Thy Nature
Video Project  2015  76 mins
JrH-A  $395
Love Thy Nature vividly illustrates how we've lost touch with nature and presents a compelling case that reconnecting with the natural world is the key to improving personal health and ensuring our survival on earth.

Science

The Immortalists
Video Project  2014  52 mins
JrH-A  $375
The Immortalists follows two biomedical scientists working with cutting edge technologies such as opti-genetics where future treatments might lie.

Should You Really Play Video Games?
BBC  2015  60 mins
JrH-A  $249
This program delves into the latest science and meets passionate gamers, journalists, programmers, psychologists and neuroscientists to find out what impact playing video games is having on our brains.

Violence Against Women

The War at Home
Bishari  2016  50 mins
JrH-A  $250
Across Canada, a woman is killed every six days by her intimate partner. 3,000 more flee their homes each night, seeking refuge in our shelters. Social stigma and a broken justice system leave the perpetrators nearly unaccountable, and re-victimize women who try to get out. Yet people still ask, “why didn’t she just leave?” For survivors of domestic violence, these words cut the deepest. With no national strategy to prevent violence against women, their battle is epic. Firsthand, up-close and personal, these brave women let us into their world as they find the courage to speak out, and fight back.

Women's Studies

Power and the World's Women
BBC  2015  50 mins
JrH-A  $249
This powerful documentary, featuring interviews with Hillary Clinton, Madeleine Albright and Condoleezza Rice, looks at the challenges of improving life for women around the world.

The Story of Reston, VA
Hi Concept Prod./Pivotal Pict.  2015  69 mins
JrH-A  $395
In the early 1960’s Robert Simon had a vision for American life that was radically different from 1950’s post-war suburban sprawl, which he felt isolated people. Simon dreamed of “another way of living” that valued community, nature, diversity and social equity. This innovative American planner set out to build a new kind of walkable suburban community that integrated citizens across racial, economic, and religious divides. His ambitious vision was realized in Reston, Virginia.

The Spit (8)
Hi Concept Prod./Pivotal Pict.  2015  various rt
JrH-A  $95
A 5 km finger of city landfill, officially known as Tommy Thompson Park has been transformed into an urban wilderness oasis. Home to an estimated 30,000 birds, butterflies, rabbits, snakes, foxes, turtles and even coyotes who’ve taken up residence in this accidental wilderness.

Zoology

Animal Super Senses (3)
BBC  2014  3x50 mins
JrH-A  $599
Imagine if you could ‘see’ with sound, smell food buried deep underground, or see the world in slow motion. This series takes you beyond the limits of human perception to explore the extraordinary world of animal senses.
